Key points to note before you arrive:

- Please look out for the sign on the left-hand white door displaying your event name, which will also contain instructions for entry to the building. Your room will be signposted throughout the building.
- Training courses begin at 09:30 (for full day and morning courses) or 13:00 (for afternoon courses).
- We may ask for your contact details for Track & Trace purposes if we do not already have these from your event organiser.
- Face masks are required to be worn in corridors, communal areas and washroom facilities. It is advised to wear face masks in training rooms however this is subject to event/organiser policies.
- Visitors are requested to maintain a safe distance wherever possible.

If you are feeling unwell, please inform your event organiser and do not attend.

Hospitality & lunch:

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available during your course.

The in-house café on the ground floor has a variety of sandwiches, rolls, soups, hot meals, and snacks available to purchase, or there are shops on Argyle Street nearby which sell food (approx. 5 mins walk).

You are welcome to use any of the shared breakout areas on the ground floor, second floor (room 216) or fourth floor (room 416).

Parking:

Both the carpark directly opposite us (c. £8) and the next nearest, also on Washington Street at the corner with Broomielaw (c. £6), can be paid by either RingGo or coins (prices are per day as of Oct 2020 and given as a guide only).

More details and options for local parking can be found on parkopedia using our postcode – G3 8AZ.

Getting here:

The Pentagon Centre is located on Washington Street, across from the Glasgow Marriott Hotel on Argyle Street, and directly opposite the Glasgow Argyle Hotel.

If travelling by train, the Pentagon Centre is just a few minutes' walk from Anderston station, and around 10 minutes' walk from Glasgow Central or Charing Cross.

The Pentagon is wheelchair accessible. If any delegates would appreciate any assistance on arrival, please let us know in advance.
